

ASIAN INTERCITY BOWLING COUNCIL

AIBC was founded in Hong Kong on December 1986 to promote the sport of bowling, foster goodwill and better friendship among the Asian cities. This was formerly known as the PACIFIC INTERCITY TENPIN BOWLING COUNCIL. However, due to the participation of other Asian cities, it was reorganized and renamed ASIAN INTERCITY BOWLING COUNCIL (AIBC).

Currently the council has a membership of 18 cities and hosts annual bowling championships. Our competitors contests for medals in Singles event, Doubles event, Team of Four event, All Events and Masters event. There are four divisions which include men and women's division and the senior men and women division for bowlers 50 years of age and above. The city with the highest medal points in the men and women's division is awarded the Overall Men and Women's City Championship Cup while the city team with the highest combined men and women's medal points is awarded the perpetual Shinzo Satoh Cup.
